

Armadale arts FESTIVAL

3 - 19 MAY 2019

VISUAL ARTS

LITERATURE AND CULTURE

MUSIC

The Armadale Arts Festival is a creative program of live music, urban art, dance, literature and arts and crafts, showcasing the incredible talent coming from this region.

The Armadale Arts Festival celebrates all forms of art and creativity, including music. Throughout the Festival there will be events and activities showcasing a diverse range of music, with many opportunities for Festival participants to get involved.

MUSIC IN THE VALLEY

Saturday 4 May, 2 to 4pm
St Mary in the Valley
Cost: $25 adults and $20 concession/student/senior

Enjoy an intimate performance by the Classic Sounds Salon Orchestra, collaborating with organist Liam Dekker, to deliver a beautiful concert of CPE Bach, Albinoni and Elgar. Special guests include Callum Dale playing Mozart's 2nd movement of the Clarinet Concerto, David McManus on classical guitar playing Vivaldi's Lute Concerto in D, plus Musical Director Rachel John playing Beethoven on solo violin. The Orchestra will back all soloists and also entertain with some zimmer and traditional fiddle tunes. Bookings are essential. To secure your seat visit the Festival website.

MUSICAL BINGO
AT THE MUSEUM

Tuesday 7 May, 10.30 to 11.30am
History House Museum

If you are a fan of music from the 50s, 60s and 70s and love a game of bingo then come join us at the Museum for Musical Bingo! Take a trip down memory lane and reminisce over popular songs from your youth. Musical Bingo is also ideal for older people living with dementia, providing an opportunity to reminisce through listening to songs from the 50s, 60s and 70s. Players can either play solo or in a small team. Bookings are essential. To secure your seat visit the Festival website.

VINTAGE RECORD NIGHT
AT THE MUSEUM

Friday 10 May, 6.30pm to 8pm
History House Museum
Cost: $10

Back by popular demand, Armadale Museum will host a Vintage Record Night where you can sit back and relax listening to records from the early 1900's through to the 1950's. Learn the stories behind the songs and about the hit makers of that time. Wine and cheese will be served during the evening. Bookings are essential. To secure your spot visit the Festival website.

CLASSIC SOUNDS ORCHESTRA
BY CANDLELIGHT

Saturday 18 May, 7.30 to 9.30pm
St Matthew's Anglican Church
Cost: $25 for adults and $20 for student/concession

Renowned local music organisation, Classic Sounds Orchestra, will deliver a captivating performance at St Matthew's Anglican Church in Jull Street as part of this year's Armadale Arts Festival. From Mozart's Symphony No. 40, to Beethoven's Symphony No 7, and the cheerful origins of Ireland with Lord of the Dance, there will be music for every taste at this unique one night only performance under candlelight. It's an evening not to be missed. Bookings are essential. To secure your seat visit the Festival website. For further information about the event, visit www.cso.asn.au

POP-UP
PUB CHOIR

Friday 3, 10 and 17 May, from 7pm
Ye Olde Narrogin Inne

The phenomenon sweeping the nation is coming to Armadale! If you and your mates are accustomed to belting out a few tunes at the pub, why not join in the fun at the Narrogin Inne every Friday night during the Armadale Arts Festival. Under the direction of Katherine John of Newport Pub Choir, and featuring live musicians, this is a first time feature of the Festival; and not to be missed! No solos, no sheet music, no experience necessary. If you're feeling brave, why not try some harmonies. Start the night off with some dinner beforehand, with the pub choir doors opening at 7pm and warming of the vocal chords commencing at 7.30pm! To secure your spot visit the Festival website.

COMMUNITY ARTS ACTIVATION
INTERACTIVE MUSIC ZONE

4-5, 11-12, 18-19 May 2019
Saturdays 10am to 4pm, Sundays 11am to 4pm
Stockland Harrisdale Shopping Centre

Fancy yourself a musician? Ever wondered what it would be like to play the drums? Strum the guitar? Sing with a microphone? Play the djembe? Armadale Arts Festival will bring the music to you at Stockland Harrisdale Shopping Centre. You can try your hand at the drums, guitar, percussion, singing or piano, strike up your creativity with musical arts and crafts, and have some fun. There is something for everyone of all skill levels.
