Armadale arts FESTIVAL

3 - 19 MAY 2019

Armadale Arts Festival has come to a close for 2019, and the City of Armadale would like to acknowledge our supporters Lotterywest and the Examiner Newspaper, and all of the community groups and individuals involved, including our Festival Artist for this year, Gracie. Whether you attended one activity or ten, we hope you enjoyed this year's Festival.

HELP US SHAPE THE 2020 ARMADALE ARTS FESTIVAL

The Festival feedback survey is now available on the website at armadaleartsfestival.com.au and via the City of Armadale's Facebook page. Tell us about your Armadale Arts Festival experience by Sunday 9 June for your chance to win a $200 VISA gift card!

CONTINUE TO ENJOY ALL THINGS ART ACROSS THE CITY

Armadale is home to a thriving cultural hub, which means you can still enjoy plenty of arts and cultural activities well after the Festival ends.

ARMADALE LIBRARY

The modern library is about more than just books, and Armadale Library is no exception. The Library always has a host of unique events on offer, as well as providing a venue to some of the City's craft groups who meeting regularly, such as Armadale Crafters and Armadale Knitting and Crochet Group.

ARTIST RETAIL COLLECTIVE (ARC ARMADALE)

Centrally located in the Jull Street Mall, ARC Armadale is a creative community hub that offers an attractive exhibition gallery, arts retail outlet, artist workshop space and creative art courses. The ARC Teahouse café also offers a great space for community gatherings and performances.

For further information on all ARC has to offer visit their Facebook page.

ARTS GALORE AT THE GREENDALE CENTRE

Don't miss out on the artistic fun at the Greendale Centre available all year around. From a Colouring-in Group, to Tai Chi, the Hills Quilting Group, Art Class in the Dale Downunder, The Knitter and Natters Craft Group, sing a song with the Carradine Choir, meet new friends at the Circle of Trust and enjoy classic movies on the big screen.

For further information phone Dale Cottages on 9399 5393.

REDISCOVER ARMADALE

Geocache your way through a host of captivating murals donning the City's buildings. ReDiscover Armadale is a partnership initiative of the City of Armadale and Six Two Three Zero, featuring the work of local and internationally renowned artists. Don't forget to pick up a map and geocaching details from the Perth Hills Armadale Visitor Centre.

FINALLY...

If you are an art, craft, literature or musical organisation within the Armadale community, we want to hear from you in the lead up to next year's Armadale Art's Festival. If you have an idea for an arts project that you'd like to run next year then please email events@armadale.wa.gov.au to discuss opportunities.
